A Fresh Perspective

Rearrange one small corner of your studio. Sometimes a simple change in your surroundings is all it takes to see your creative space in a new light.

Inspiration on Display

Choose something that sparks your creativity a treasured object, favorite artwork, photograph, or found treasure and display it somewhere you'll see it every day.

Your Favorite Corner

Photograph your favorite nook in your studio. What makes this space special? Consider how you might bring those same qualities into other areas of your workspace.

The Forgotten Drawer

Open a drawer or container you haven't explored in a while. Sort through its contents, rediscover forgotten treasures, and set aside a few supplies to use in your next project.

Curate & Create

Arrange a small inspiration shelf with objects, artwork, books, and materials that reflect your current creative interests. Refresh it whenever inspiration strikes.

A Place for Everything

Choose one collection of supplies that could use a better home. Experiment with baskets, jars, trays, or repurposed containers to make them easier to find and enjoy.

Prepare a welcoming spot for cooler days. Add a soft throw, warm lighting, or a favorite mug nearby to make your creative space feel especially inviting.
