

Tempting Template

At Stampington & Company, we have come into the tradition of holding a stamping party once a month. Sometimes we just practice, but at other times we dream up template ideas that seem to take off. During a Valentine's Day-themed event, the heart locket is what resulted. This sweet template harkens back to a treasured memory or secret love, and we invite you to submit your best and favorite lockets. Take a chance and submit your favorite results for a chance to be featured in the Winter 2016 Issue of The Stampers' Sampler. You can take a cue from Valentine's or perhaps play up the sentimentality of this template — either way, we look forward to receiving your submissions! Just make sure they include rubber stamping and mail your submission in by the deadline of August 15, 2015.
